Just Like Gold Coin.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

The new 35c. size contains over double the quantity of the 25c. size.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The Middle Aged Man and His Mission on This Great Earth.

A look of serious meditation rests upon the face of the middle aged man who stands at the intersection of two important thoroughfares and gazes in silence at the ground before him.

He is plainly but comfortably dressed; his features are bronzed, and his sun-burned hands bear the marks of toil.

Citizens pass and repass, yet he heeds them not. The roar of traffic is all about him, but apparently he does not hear it. His thoughts are far away.

Who shall say that thoughts are not things? Who knows but that the processes of the mind leave lasting traces upon an environment now unseen, but as real as the visible and tangible thing we call matter, and that some day, when the veil is rent asunder and the spiritual eye looks forth upon a new universe, it will see in changeless form the real and substantial results of those mental processes and— But the man is moving.

Slowly he stoops. He picks up something from the ground.

He holds it in his hand and looks at it thoughtfully.

Then he steps forward. There is a leisurely dignity in his movements that well may challenge the attention of the student of American institutions and move him to reflection upon the effects of those institutions upon the national character.

He stoops again. He places carefully upon the ground the object he has carried in his hand.

Picking up an iron implement, he brings it down once, twice, thrice, upon the object.

Then he straightens up, drops the implement of iron and resumes his contemplative gaze downward into the bowels of the earth.

He is an employee of the street department.

He is laying a pavement.—Chicago Tribune.

The Rattled Bridegroom.

A minister in Columbus says that women have more nerve than men as a rule. This, he says, is especially the case when it comes to marrying. Some time since he was called to marry a young couple in what might be called the aristocratic circle. The young man was very much excited, but was trying to put on a bold face for the emergency. To show that he was not frightened in the least he concluded to ask the minister if it was customary to kiss the bride. After stuttering for some time he finally broke out, "Is kissing customary?" The minister kindly informed him that it was not under the circumstances, and the young man was led to the altar like a lamb.—Mansfield Shield.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.
